Discover a Blend of History, Culture, and Adventure

Our area is overflowing with captivating history and vibrant nature. Tumwater is known as the oldest settlement and southern gateway to Puget Sound's mega-metropolitan region. The area maintains its many natural resources and is flush with a vibrant mix of community-minded people living amid a rich historical culture.

Tumwater is now known for its annual Artesian Brewfest, a unique outdoor venue offering tastings of craft beers from 40+ northwest breweries along with cider, wine, spirits, and food.
